Receiving your ballot:

Your city or town clerk will mail your ballot(s) to you along with a secrecy envelope, a pre-paid return envelope, and ballot return instructions. Follow the instructions carefully to complete and return your ballot(s). If you have difficulty with or are unable to complete a paper ballot, you may request accommodations from the Elections Division Elections Division.

Return your ballot by mail or in person.

No postage is required to return your ballot(s) by mail. You can return your ballot in person to your local election office, any early voting location, or a drop box provided by your city/town. Visit the Elections Division to find your ballot return locations.

Check the status of your ballot(s):

You can check the status of your Mail-in Ballot(s) through the online Track My Ballot page.
